Speakers:

Darrel Rundus - "I'm a nobody telling everybody about somebody who can save anybody." Darrel Rundus, a former tormentor of Christians, is the founder of Circulation Promotions Unlimited, America's largest newspaper sales & marketing firm. This hard earned millionaire never graduated high school, but has trained thousands of people to effectively communicate the gospel with the public through his role as President of the Great News Network evangelism ministry. He's worked with leaders such as actor Kirk Cameron, Ray Comfort, Josh McDowell and many others. Darrel and his wife Tammy live in Denton, Texas with their 5 kids.

Mark Cahill - "My passion is for the entire world to know Jesus Christ! Period." Mark has been equipping and encouraging Christians to boldly stand up for what they believe for the past 10 years. Mark's audiences often comment that they finally feel equipped to share their faith. He is the author of One Thing You Can't Do in Heaven, and One Heartbeat Away. Mark played college basketball with Charles Barkley of NBA fame.
